

..:red alert:..

the first choice in australian entertainment

Red Alert leaves others in its wake as the ultimate in entertainment. Whether playing for corporate or private functions, or entertaining crowds at public events, pubs and clubs, Red Alert will keep you dancing all night. Red Alert can cater to all functions;- small, intimate parties as well as gala awards nights and corporate functions. Their experience and expertise ensure this fresh line-up deliver each show as a perfectly seamless blend of style, flair and fun.

Red Alert is proud to boast exceptionally talented musicians and singers with a diverse range of musical and performance experience. Members have worked on stage and screen, performed in covers and originals bands and have worked across a wide range of classical, jazz and contemporary music. The quality of the band is the highest available. With the extensive variety in background of the players, Red Alert has all styles of music covered. Many bands talk about versatility; Red Alert delivers!

Red Alert is primarily a 6-piece band that plays for events and functions across Australia. Based in Melbourne, the band operates as a Top 40 cover band and is equally impressive playing jazz and lounge music. When requested, additional musicians can be booked and Red Alert often performs as a 9-piece band with three horn players taking part.

Red Alert band members have entertained corporate clients including:

Accenture, Cadbury, Infosys, Allied Medical, McConnel Dowell (2009, 2010), Run For The Kids (2007, 2009, 2010), Hawthorn Football Club AFL, Voyager Travel, Countrywide, Waverly Private Hospital (2008, 2009) ANZ Bank, Delfin, Ernst Young, Jemena, Alice Springs Cup (2010), Mars Snackfoods, Metro Trains, Michael Hill Jewelers Gala Dinner and Awards (2008), Melbourne Rebels (Rugby Union), Vic Express (2006, 2007, 2008), AUSCRS (Port Douglas 2003, Cabal Beach Broome 2004 and Hayman Island 2007), Australia Post – Melbourne 2006 and 2007, Australia Society of Japan (Tokyo 2006 and 2007), Australia Society Singapore 2008, Audi IRC Australian Championship Yacht Race – Hamilton Island 2007, plus many more satisfied corporate and private clients.....